CONFERENCE CALL EDITION

Versado Bingo Rules

1. Assign a unique Versado Bingo Card to each player. There are 10 provided.
 - a. Either use the fancy digital form to the right to fill in names OR simply send the whole game to everyone playing and make sure everyone knows what their unique card number is.
2. Start playing when the call begins !
3. When anyone in the meeting says one of the phrases on the card, place token, candy, or a Dorito chip on the phrase that was called out.
4. The first person to claim 5 spaces in a row (horizontal, vertical, or diagonal) and yell "Bingo!" wins.
 - a. Feel free to interrupt whoever is speaking to yell "Bingo!" — unless that person is communicating something serious, because... c'mon! Don't be rude.
 - b. After interrupting to yell "Bingo!" be sure to apologize for interrupting.
 - c. Claim the prize and revel in your glory!

Who Is Versado?

We are a nerdy group of people who genuinely love learning about learning. We utilize cutting-edge technology, researched education strategies, and a little bit (or a lot) of fun to help others learn. We like to think that working and learning is better when it is also fun.

Many companies have had to make the huge shift from being an entirely live workforce to now working virtually. We understand that this can be challenging and wanted to offer your workforce some levity during an otherwise uncertain time. Now you and your team can enjoy all conference calls by playing Versado Bingo Conference Call Edition! This game is proven to increase listener engagement (because you need to listen to win, and we all love to win) and liven up your conference calls. Nothing shows you're paying attention like screaming "Bingo!" right in the middle of the CEO's monthly update.

As you navigate the shift to working virtually, please contact Versado Training if we can help you in any way.
